Heartland Harmony Joins Roger Neal & Friends Sing for MS Concert Series on Select Dates

SUMMERSVILLE, W. Va. – West Virginia's Heartland Harmony is proud to announce that the group was recently added to two select dates on the Roger Neal & Friends Sing for MS concert series.

The concert series, which is sponsored by Bodega Chocolates, will take place in 53 cities across the United States and feature regular performances from Amazed, the Skyline Boys Quartet, Allen Harris Family, Brenda North, Joan Gregory, Loretta Withee, and Debbie Bennett. The concert series will also feature artists periodically throughout the tour like Karen Peck & New River, Gold City, the Perrys, Talley Trio, Dove Brothers Quartet, Brian Free & Assurance, the McKameys, the Isaacs, the Hoppers, and more.

Heartland Harmony will be joining the tour on two dates as the tour passes through West Virginia. The group will appear on the April 21, 2007 tour stop in Morgantown, West Virginia at the Morgantown High School Auditorium. The quartet will also join Neal and Friends on the November 2, 2007 tour stop in Charleston, West Virginia at the Charleston Municipal Auditorium.

"This is a great opportunity for our group, and we are really excited to be sharing the stage with so many wonderful groups and talented individuals," mentioned Jeff Board of Heartland Harmony. "Roger is doing a really great thing with this tour, and we very humbled to be even a smart part of it."

Roger Neal said about the concert series, "I never expected to ever do anything like this in my ministry. This was not part of my ministry plan, but God has asked us to do this and my wife and I always do what God asks us to do. This has been a great undertaking, but God is bringing it all together."

Neal also commented, "Our performers are fresh new voices in Gospel music. We are so excited to have them be a very important part of this tour."

A special tour website will give fans an inside look at the tour, info on each city, interviews with the artists, etc. The site is <http://wherethegodguides.com>.
